Roving Minds Study Group
2018-2019

2018-2019 Theme: People That Changed the World

The purpose of Roving Minds is to explore and discuss subjects of interest to the group, to enjoy learning together, and to take what they have learned back to the community. Refreshments provided. The theme for Roving Minds this year is People That Changed the World. During the first meeting in September, the specific topics and discussion leaders for each date will be determined.

Group Guidelines:

- Express thoughts from your personal view only.
- Everyone is encouraged to share thoughts and opinions about the subject.
- Respect those who wish to just listen to the discussion.
- Encourage others to share their thoughts.
- Differences of opinion are accepted respectfully.
- Help keep the discussion geared to the subject.
- Avoid starting a side conversation with someone next to you.
- Let everyone have a chance to be heard.
- Keep an open mind, and enjoy learning from each other.
- Cultivate and share your sense of humor.

Location: Robbinsdale Police & Fire Station, Community Meeting Room (lower level), 4101 Hubbard Ave N. Nonmembers are encouraged to come a time or two just to see what Roving Minds do.
